

Term One 2010

High school discussion tours: Video Art
Free 90 minute Gallery tour

Stage 5 or 6: Tour includes in-Gallery activities.
View video art through the post modern frame, and use the conceptual framework to discuss the role, relevance and resonance of video art in today's culture.

Focus exhibitions:

What is Missing? - Sylvie Blocher

Panthers Football club, commissioned Sylvie Blocher and Campement Urbain to imagine the future of Penrith. This ground-breaking collaboration represents a story of the possibilities for Western Sydney and the potential influence this region could have on urban renewal, sustainable lifestyles and community development throughout the world.

Tele-Vision Eyes

Tele-Vision Eyes is a focused selection of video art from the mid-90s to late-00s. Artists include Harry Dodge and Stanya Kahn (US), Matthew Griffin (AUS), Kate Murphy (AUS), David Rosetzky (AUS), John Spiteri (AUS) and Ryan Trecartin (US).

For more info and to book contact

Naomi McCarthy, Manager Education and Public Programs
P 02 4735 1100 E nmccarthy@penrithcity.nsw.gov.au
Risk Assessment document on www.penrithregionalgallery.org

What is Missing? and Tele-vision Eyes
13 February – 4 April

The Panthers of the Future / The Future of the Panthers, 2008, Video still Courtesy and © Sylvie Blocher and Campement Urbain